

Welcome to the Shaw's Holidays brochure that will cover
2010 and 2011

The 2010 prices are on the next few pages of this insert and are followed by new additions to our portfolio of property – this list will continue to grow as time passes.

Up-to-date lists of availability are available to view on our website www.shawsholidays.com but if you don't have internet access then call us and we'll send you a print out.

If you visit the website you will be able to see additional photographs of the properties, take Virtual Tours and even book on-line through a secure server. We also take bookings over the telephone and through the post if you feel more comfortable with that.

Please pass this brochure to family or friends after you have finished with it.

L09. RHIW MOUNTAIN. Sleep up to 8. No pet.*

A recently extended 300 year old hillside cottage with fabulous views to Bardsey Island, the Gwylan Islands and across to the Wicklow mountains of Ireland on a clear day. Standing in around two acres of grazing land and wild garden with ample playing space for children. The cottage is on the fringe of the hamlet of Rhiw and is a short drive down to seaside Aberdaron with a choice of two pubs, cafes, shops and stretch of lovely sandy beach. Aberdaron was the village that provided the last refuge for medieval pilgrims before their hazardous crossing to Ynys Enlli (Bardsey). All the attractions of the Lleyn are within a short drive with excellent beaches at Abersoch, Hell's Mouth, Bwlch Tocyn, Whistling Sands, Nefyn and Morfa Nefyn. The cottage stands on the edge of an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and is ideally located for walkers to traipse the lanes and footpaths of idyllic Lleyn and for people who enjoy cooking.

ACCOMMODATION: There are two bedrooms. (1) a ground floor double with en suite shower/w.c. with large step-in shower cubicle. (2) A twin room with two additional twin beds in the gallery area above accessed via steps. A travel cot is provided. Bathroom/w.c. with wet room shower. New kitchen/dining room with farmhouse kitchen table, exceptional uninterrupted views, Rangemaster torledo cooker, fridge, dishwasher and washer-drier. Lounge with original open fire, digital TV with Freeview channels, and gallery area above with a double bed (access via steps). The cottage has some storage heaters as well as the open fire and is available all year. Ample parking. * Pets are not accepted but holidaymakers are advised that the owners, who use the cottage regularly, do have their own dogs and cat. The fee includes electricity and an initial supply of fuel. Bed linen can be provided extra by prior arrangement. The property is let from Friday to Friday. Off-season weekends available. Reduced rates for couples and smaller parties available off-season by negotiation.

Fees A £730 B £500 (except Xmas and New Year at £730) C £380 D £250

L17. LLANENGAN. Sleep 8. Pet.

Immaculate modernised semi-detached cottage in the centre of the pretty village of Llanengan which is two miles outside Abersoch – one of the most popular holiday destinations on the west coast of the UK. The cottage has been totally renovated for holiday lettings in 2010 and has been finished to perfection by a professional, Award Winning Interior Designer to offer stylish and comfortable accommodation. Llanengan village has an excellent country pub only 69 steps away – but possibly a few more steps on the way back – and is within a very short drive of Hell's Mouth beach and, of course, countless other coves and beaches on the Lleyn. ACCOMMODATION. Four bedrooms. (1) a twin room (2) A double. (3) A double (4) ground floor double. A travel cot is provided. Bathroom/w.c. with a Victorian style suite with a shower over the bath. Ground floor shower/w.c. Utility room with a washing machine and tumble dryer. Cottage kitchen/breakfast room with Belfast sink and oak topped work surfaces, electric cooker, microwave, TV, and a fridge-freezer. Dining room with a table that can seat eight. Lounge with flat screen TV, Freeview channels, DVD player with good library of films, open fire. Private garden opposite with patio area and day-long sunshine. Small rear yard area. Unrestricted roadside parking. The fee includes electricity, central heating and bed linen. Friday to Friday bookings. Off-peak weekends available at 75% of the weekly fee.

Fees A £925 B £700 C £530 D £360

A 150 year old stone cottage standing in around ten acres of sloping hillside and wild pasture with wonderful uninterrupted views down to Hell's Mouth Bay (Porth Neigwl and with access to the quieter end of Porth Neigwl with its surfing beach.). An idyllic peaceful setting surrounded by National Trust land and a short drive from seaside Aberdaron and Abersoch. The access lane to the cottage is narrow and rough and includes crossing a field – 4 x 4 vehicles advised – but you can park just under half a mile away on the unclassified road that leads from Rhiw to Sarn Mellteyrn (nearest shops and pubs). ACCOMMODATION: One bedroom with a double bed and a single folding bed (for use where appropriate) and a roof window with exceptional views. Ground floor bathroom/w.c. with a shower over the bath. Kitchen with electric cooker, microwave, fridge, dishwasher and washing machine. Living room with original inglenook fire place, gas fire, TV with Freeview channels and DVD, books for light reading, small library of films, board games.
